

Application for an individual’s licence

Real estate agent, property auctioneer, resident letting agent, motor dealer, chattel auctioneer

Property Occupations Act 2014 • Motor Dealers and Chattel Auctioneers Act 2014

This form is effective from 1 July 2018

ABN: 13 846 673 994

Who can use this form?

New licence application form 1–1 is for individuals to apply for real estate agent, auctioneer (real property), resident letting agent licences under the Property Occupations Act 2014 and motor dealer and chattel auctioneer licences under the Motor Dealers and Chattel Auctioneers Act 2014. If you require a corporation licence, please use the New licence application form 1–2.

If applying for a field agents licence (for collection of debts), use the New licence application form 1–4 for a corporation and form 1–3 for an individual.

Fees payable

The Acts provide for a licence applicant to pay both an application fee and a licence issue fee. These fees are in the Property Occupations Regulation 2014 and the Motor Dealers and Chattel Auctioneers Regulation 2014. Listed below are the current application and licence issue fees for a single licence category of one or three years. Applicants for a single class licence, for either one or three years must pay the listed fee.

Licence category	One year term (One licence category – includes non-refundable application fee of $160.30)	Three year term (One licence category – includes non-refundable application fee of $160.30)	Additional licence fee*
Real estate agent, auctioneer (real property), resident letting agent, motor dealer and chattel auctioneer	$1425.90	$2672.90	$165.90

* If you are applying for an additional licence under the Property Occupations Act 2014 or the Motor Dealers and Chattel Auctioneers Act 2014 you only need to pay an application fee of $165.90 for each additional class.

Please note: Applicants for a Chattel Auctioneer licence are not required to pay an additional application fee if they already hold or are also applying for an auctioneer (real property) licence. Applicants for an Auctioneer (real property) licence are not required to pay an additional application fee if they already hold or are also applying for a Chattel Auctioneer licence.

Criminal history check

A criminal history check (CHC) will be conducted for each person whose name is listed on the application. The fee for each CHC conducted is $39.20 (inclusive of $1.13 GST) and processing of the application cannot be progressed until this fee is paid. Criminal history checks are conducted in accordance with the legislation as outlined in the Property Occupations Act 2014 and Motor Dealers and Chattel Auctioneers Act 2014. All applications are subject to mandatory criminal history checks. CHC fees are not included in the above fees.

Please note: A CHC is not required if one has been completed under the relevant legislation within the past six months. If it is outside of this timeframe then another one is required.

Total fee = 1 or 3 year fee $ + CHC $ ($39.20 x no. required) = $

Part 2—Applicant details

Proof of name and identification

You need to provide proof of identification in your current name. This can be your driver's licence, passport, Australian certificate of citizenship or birth certificate/extract. Do not send originals. Only photocopies of original documents certified as being a true copy of the original document by the following people can be accepted: Justice of the Peace, Commissioner for Declarations, barrister/solicitor or Notary Public.

If you are lodging your application in person, you can provide your original documents which will be copied and certified by the officer accepting your application.

If your name has changed by marriage or for any other reason, you must provide evidence of each change of name. For example certified copies of marriage certificates, change of name certificates etc.

Eligibility to work in Australia

Every worker from overseas must have a valid Australian visa with work rights. Temporary visas with work rights include working holiday maker visas, student visas and the subclass TSS visa. You can check your own work and visa entitlements at www.homeaffairs.gov.au. Enquiries may be made with the Department of Home Affairs to verify an applicant's work entitlements in Australia.

Part 4—Educational qualifications and previous licences

An applicant is eligible to obtain a licence, if they are at least 18 years of age and if they have completed the educational and other qualifications as approved by the chief executive.

To qualify for a licence you must have:

1. held an equivalent licence within the last two years prior to making an application for a new licence or
2. have completed the training qualifications for the specific licence type listed below.

If you have held an equivalent licence under the current Property Occupations Act 2014, the Motor Dealers and Chattel Auctioneers Act 2014 or the repealed Property Agents and Motor Dealers Act 2000 which expired less than two years ago, list the licence details in Part 4.

Please note: For a licence to be granted your qualifications must meet the relevant requirements exactly.

Please note: There are no educational requirements for applicants applying for a motor dealer (broker) licence.

Real estate agent, limited real estate agent (business letting), limited real estate agent (affordable housing), motor dealer, motor dealer (wrecker), auctioneer (real property), chattel auctioneer and resident letting agent applicants are required to meet the prescribed eligibility requirements for the respective licences which are listed on the next page.

Please provide with your application a certificate of completion, statement of attainment or official transcript of the relevant course/training package listing the units/modules successfully completed.

For information on training providers:

- visit www.training.gov.au and search by typing in the name of the qualification from the relevant training package
- for general enquiries telephone 1300 369 935
- check with industry associations
- search the yellow pages for training providers.

The prescribed eligibility requirements for the respective licences are:

Part 5—Trading particulars

You need to tick the appropriate box for your method of trade. You then need to complete the relevant parts of the form as required.

Sole trader

As a sole trader you operate your business on your own and control and manage the business. You are legally responsible for all aspects of the business—debts and losses cannot be shared. You can still employ persons as employees of the business.

Independent contractor

You sub-contract your services as either a sole trader, corporation or partnership to another licensee. You invoice the business that you sub-contract to for the services you provide.

Working director

You work as a licensee for or on behalf of a company of which you are a director. The company must also hold the same class of licence that you hold as the working director. The director's earnings are in substance for personal manual labour or services.

Employed licensee

A licensee who is engaged as an employee of another individual or corporation who holds the same class of licence. You can be engaged to be the person in charge of one of your employer's places of business.

Partnership

A partnership may be comprised of either individual partners or corporation partners or a combination of both.

If an individual is a partner in the business, but they do not perform any activity in the business that is considered a licensable activity (Part 1 of these notes outlines licensable activities), they are not required to be licensed. All corporations in a partnership must be licensed. A corporation cannot be a silent partner.

Part 6—Places of business

Principal place of business

Each licensee must operate an office that is the licensee's principal place of business. There must be a suitably licensed person in charge of the principal place of business. The principal place of business must be a physical address; a post office box is not acceptable.

For resident letting agents, where the individual manages a building complex, the principal place of business must be in the complex. When more than one building complex is managed, the principal place of business must be in one of the complexes.

Other place of business

You can nominate another place of business. There must be a suitably licensed person in charge. Real estate agents that operate another place of business that is not a resident letting agency can engage a real estate salesperson to be the person in charge at another place of business. The real estate salesperson must however not be limited by any conditions on their registration certificate.

Places of business can be either in Queensland or in another state or territory within Australia. Places of business that are not contiguous (separated by a public road) must have a different person in charge for each place of business.

If you have more than two places of business you will need to supply an attachment with the application form which lists your other places of business, the business name (if applicable) used at each place of business and the name and licence number of the licensed person in charge at each place of business.

For resident letting agents, if the individual has more than one place of business, the person in charge at each other place of business can hold either a resident letting agent licence or a real estate agent licence.

Business name

Any business name used in conjunction with a licence issued by our office, must have the licensee as the proprietor of the business name. If a trust is listed as a proprietor of the business name, you must provide acceptable evidence that the licensee is entitled to operate on behalf of the Trust e.g. a photocopy of the relevant page from the trust deed listing the trustee/s of the trust.

Part 11—Suitability checklist

This section of the form relates to an individual who is intending to carry on a business as a sole trader, working director, member of a partnership or an employed licensee and any business associates (partners).

An applicant is not a suitable person to hold a licence if the individual:

- is an insolvent under administration
- has been convicted in the past five years in Queensland or elsewhere of a serious offence
- is currently disqualified from holding a licence or registration certificate
- is subject to a relevant control order (motor dealer licence applicants only).

While an applicant is automatically deemed not suitable to hold a licence if they answer yes to any of the above, there are also a number of other matters which must be considered when determining suitability. If you answer yes to any of the suitability questions listed on the application form, please provide the full details in writing.

Relevant Acts include the Motor Dealers and Chattel Auctioneers Act 2014, the Property Occupations Act 2014, the Debt Collectors (Field Agents and Collection Agents) Act 2014, the repealed Property Agents and Motor Dealers Act 2000 or a corresponding law.

'insolvent under administration' has the meaning as defined in the Corporations Act 2001, section 9.

The Corporations Act 2001 defines insolvent under administration as a person who:

1. under the Bankruptcy Act 1966 or the law of an external Territory, is a bankrupt in respect of a bankruptcy from which the person has not been discharged
2. under the law of an external Territory or the law of a foreign country, has the status of an undischarged bankrupt; and includes:
 - 2.1. a person any of whose property is subject to control under:
 - 2.1.1. section 50 or Division 2 of Part X of the Bankruptcy Act 1966
 - 2.1.2. a corresponding provision of the law of an external Territory or the law of a foreign country; or

2.2. a person who has executed a personal insolvency agreement under:

2.2.1. Part X of the Bankruptcy Act 1966

2.2.2. the corresponding provisions of the law of an external Territory or the law of a foreign country, where the terms of the agreement have not been fully complied with.

'serious offence' means any of the following offences punishable by three or more years imprisonment:

- an offence involving fraud or dishonesty
- an offence involving the trafficking of drugs
- an offence involving the use or threatened use of violence
- an offence of a sexual nature
- extortion
- arson
- unlawful stalking.

For motor dealer applicants only, a serious offence also includes:

- an offence against the Criminal Code, section 76 (Recruiting person to become participant in criminal organisation)
- an offence mentioned in the Criminal Code, part 2, chapter 9A (Consorting); or
- an offence that is –
 - a prescribed offence within the meaning of the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161N; and
 - committed with a serious organised crime circumstance of aggravation within the meaning of the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161Q

The fact that a sentence for one of the offences was less than three years does not lessen the applicant's responsibility for disclosure. If in doubt answer 'Yes' and provide written details of the conviction. It is an offence to provide incorrect or misleading information.

'conviction' includes a plea of guilty or a finding of guilt by a court, but does not include a plea of guilty or a finding of guilt by a court if no conviction is recorded by the court.

'corresponding law' means a law of another State, Territory or New Zealand that provides for the same matter as a relevant Act or a provision of a relevant Act.

If you are uncertain about any of the above, you can contact the Office of Fair Trading on 13 QGOV (13 74 68) for information and assistance.

Declaration

All persons relating to this application (including for example: Directors, Executive Officers and Business Associates) must be a suitable person. The applicant must have the consensus of all these persons for a criminal history check to be conducted for this application.

Please note: The criminal history check fee is payable for each check conducted in relation to the application.

Lodgement details

Please ensure your application is fully completed and you have attached proof of identification documents, training certificates, fees and attachments as required. If any details or fees are missing or incomplete our office will be required to write to you which delays the processing of your application and the issue of your licence. If no response is received from you within a reasonable timeframe, your application may be deemed to have been withdrawn by you. In this circumstance a refund of fees paid less the application fee and criminal history check fees (if the checks have been conducted) will be refunded to you. You will then need to resubmit another application if you still require the licence.

Licence approval

Normal processing time for new applications is 4–6 weeks however this can be longer if we need to contact you for missing information or fees. Applications can sometimes be delayed awaiting clearance of police checks which is outside the control of the Office of Fair Trading. If your application is refused we will send an information notice to you explaining your rights and the process involved in appealing the decision.

You are not able to perform the functions of a licensee until a licence has been issued.

Refunds

You can withdraw your application at any time prior to the licence being granted or refused. If the application is withdrawn by you or deemed withdrawn or refused you will receive a refund of the fees paid less a non-refundable application processing fee and any fees paid for criminal history checks that have already been conducted.
